

Year 5 Home Learning

This week the written piece of work is English and will be completed in your English Home Learning book. There is also a Math Task to be completed online (no need to hand anything in).

Due Date: Sunday 06/10/19

English Writing

WALT: use the waterfall technique to build cohesion in paragraphs

Last week we experimented with using the waterfall technique as a tool to help us ensure that we vary our sentence structure—see below the order to write the different sentence types:

Simple
Coordinating
Subordinating
Fronted adverbial
Simple

Watch the video about animal migration on the Serengeti https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Cnw0a4p5\_Ow . Write a recount of the video using the Waterfall technique...don't forget the descriptive perspectives and the features of a recount!

Extra Challenge: Rewrite your paragraph using the following structure—

Fronted adverbial
Subordinating
Simple

Reflection

How does it affect your writing? Which paragraph sounds better? Why?
