12th of May 2019

The Moral Education curriculum at JPS helps us learn more about how to make good decisions, develop our understanding of right and wrong and to encourage us to think more about ourselves and other people's feelings. As the holy month of Ramadan begins, it's the perfect time for all of us to reflect on what is important, on those who are special to us, but also how we might want to improve something in our own lives.

This Ramadan, we would like you to think of a promise to yourself, something that you might want to improve or get better at.

Make it measurable e.g.

I Pledge to tidy out my old clothes

I Pledge to tidy out my old clothes and donate them to charity by the end of Ramadan

Pledges will be shared with the whole school on Tuesday 14th of May. They can be made into lanyards, on stickers or perhaps a scroll and worn on you! Have fun thinking, making and decorating these. (Templates available below if needed)

Over the course of this Ramadan and beyond think of how you will keep your pledges. Mrs Higgins and your teachers will be looking to hear #JPSipledge stories and would love to award you with a 'Jewels of Kindness' award aimed at catching examples of kindness and improving ourselves. Good Luck, you can do it!
